And everything is going to the beat

And everything is going to the beat

And everything is going to the beat

And everything is going to the beat

And everything is going to the beat

And everything is going to the beat

And everything is going to the beat

And everything is going to the beat

And everything is going to the beat

And everything is going to

And everything is going to the beat

And everything is going to the beat

And everything is going to the beat

think of something to say the day They couldn't think of something to say the day They couldn't think of something to say the day

They couldn't think of something to say the day

They couldn't think of something to say the day

They couldn't think of something to say the day

They couldn't think of something to say the day

Ora Ora Ora Ora

They couldn't think of something to say the day

They couldn't think of something to say the day

They couldn't think of something to say the day

They couldn't think of something to say the day

They couldn't think of something to say the day
